The final panel aims to synthesize the diverse discussions and insights gathered throughout the summit. It is imperative to converge on actionable steps that address the core challenges in our Global Peace Architecture exploring the critical role of education and integral formation in promoting lasting peace.

SESSION ONE: EDUCATION AND INTEGRAL FORMATION

After a brief summary of the summit topic results, speakers will delve into the critical role of education and integral formation in promoting lasting peace, stressing the importance of Integrating peace education into school curricula at all levels which will emphasize moral, emotional, and ethical development alongside academic achievements.

SESSION TWO: PROGRESS AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

The second session will focus on using technology and progress for human development, rather than using humans for progress, which is the case of many school curricula around the world. The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) then, can be used as tools of implementation.

DECISION MAKING: Chart a forward-looking path to reinforce our Global Peace Architecture through a coalition of peace makers that all commit to peace through a series of actions after the summit.
