The Spark, December 27, 2025, Edition 66

Looking Back with Gratitude, Looking Forward with Purpose

As 2025 comes to a close, all of us at the Charter for Compassion extend our heartfelt gratitude. Whether you participated in our programs, contributed your expertise, helped grow a Compassionate Community, or supported us through your generosity—you made this a meaningful year of compassion in action.

This season invites reflection, not only on what we have accomplished but on what the world is asking of us in the year ahead. During uncertain times, compassion becomes more than a moral ideal—it becomes a form of resilience and a global necessity.

“Compassion is not a luxury; it is essential for our survival.”
— The Dalai Lama

As we prepare to enter 2026, we are inspired by the work that lies ahead and the many ways we will continue building a more compassionate world together...

See what's coming in 2026!

Global Read: Sister Days: 365 Moments in African American Women's History with Janus Adams

Wednesday, January 28
9:30am PST / 10:30am MST / 11:30am CST
/ 12:30pm EST / 5:30pm GMT / 6:30pm CET
/ 7:30pm SAST / 11pm IST

Across centuries, African American women have lived brilliantly, creatively, lovingly, and intentionally—shaping families, communities, nations, and the world. Too often our lives have been framed solely through the lens of struggle, as if our place in world history exists solely in opposition to oppression.

Sister Days is the book that changes the way we think of Black women—our past, present, and our future—each and every day.

Embodied Presence Course with Eckhart Tolle and Kim Eng

Embodied Presence is a self-paced online video course offering an introduction to Eckhart Tolle's timeless teachings—presented in a way that is accessible, practical, and deeply relevant to modern life.

This course invites you to step into the power of presence—living with greater awareness, compassion, and inner strength. You may choose to engage individually or within small groups, making it ideal for personal growth, community circles, or study gatherings.

The program unfolds over eight modules. While you can move at your own pace, we recommend completing one module per week for the most enriching experience.

This program is offered by the Charter for Compassion in partnership with the Eckhart Tolle Foundation, a global coalition working to build a just, compassionate, and sustainable world.

World Interfaith Harmony Week with the Charter for Compassion

Each year, World Interfaith Harmony Week invites us to pause, breathe, and remember what binds us together across traditions, cultures, and distances. In a world often shaken by division and uncertainty, this week offers a sanctuary—a sacred space we create together—where listening, learning, and honoring one another becomes an act of healing.

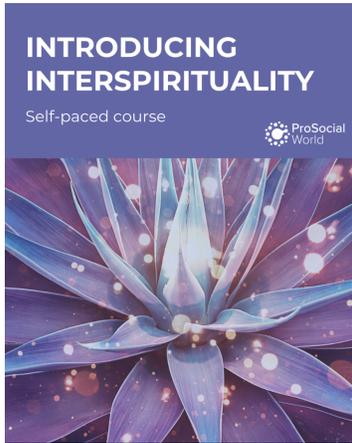

“Creating Sacred Space: Awakening the Heart” is an invitation into a shared journey. Throughout the week, we will explore how compassion, wisdom, and spiritual insight live at the center of all our traditions. We will gather across faiths and philosophies to reflect, to witness, and to renew our commitment to a world rooted in understanding and kindness.

Whether you join us for a conversation, a moment of silence, a story from another tradition, or a practice that opens your heart just a little wider, you are helping build the beloved community we long for. This is a week to soften the edges, expand our circles, and awaken what is most humane and hopeful within us.

Together, let us cultivate spaces—inner and outer—where all are welcome, all are respected, and all can flourish.
